Happy are those who take delight in the law of the Lord. They are like trees planted by streams of water. In all that they do, they prosper. For the Lord watches over the way of the righteous. May God number us with the righteous as we worship the Lord.

Let us worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

"We've Come This Far By Faith"

Affirmation of Faith – Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayer of Intercession

Lord of mercy and might, we come at this hour in humility and in gratitude. We come as empty vessels seeking to be filled by your love, so that we might share that love with a broken world.

We come, O God, seeking blessings for those who hunger and suffer for food, both spiritual and physical. We pray for those who thirst after water and who thirst after righteousness. We come on behalf of those who are weak and weary. We come on behalf of those whose lives are threatened by violence at home, in their communities, and in their own minds. Give us, O God, compassionate and generous hearts, that we may not stand idly by the suffering. Help us to find ways to be the church in the world, and to share the love and peace of Christ everywhere we go. And now, church, I invite you to pray with me the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples, saying:

Our Father, who art in heaven. Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Closing Hymn “Go Ye Now In Peace”

* The Charge and Benediction Rev. Killian

I charge you to remain vigilant even though the storms may rage all around you. Know that the God of peace is present with you in the midst of the wind and the rain. Walk confidently in faith believing that the Son will shine again.

And now may the power of Almighty God, the grace and peace of Jesus Christ, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you today and every day of your lives. Amen.

A Great Day

We give thanks to the Church Reopening Committee and for all who collaborated with the committee in developing the protocol that allowed us to return to in-person worship on Sunday, September 12, 2021. It was clear from the smiles and laughter that people were glad to be back in the building.

Thank you to those who were able to attend in person, and to those who joined us via livestream. The Technology Team is working diligently to ensure that everyone who desires to worship virtually has an opportunity to do so.

We will continue to follow the protocol guidelines each Sunday. Please remember to call the church office if you plan to attend, wear your mask, practice social distancing, and wait for instructions from the ushers before entering and exiting the service. We did a tremendous job on Sunday, and we believe that if we make the protocol a regular part of our worship experience, we can keep ourselves and those around us safe.

It was a great day, and we thank God for blessing us in a mighty way!

Blessings,

Dot
