Call to Worship

Liturgist

There are many gifts, talents, and abilities given by God. But there is only one Spirit. There are many manifestations of God's Spirit in the world, God gives to each as God chooses. No matter how far we wander from God, God's steadfast love finds us. No matter how vulnerable our lives seem to us, God's steadfast love gives us hope. Let us join our hearts together and worship God!

Prayer of the Day

Liturgist

Loving and gracious God, source of all beauty, wholeness, forgiveness, and mercy, we invite your Holy Spirit to sojourn with us as we offer praises to your holy name. We pray, O God, that you would heal those who are broken, and protect those who are fragile. We pray for those in our midst who have answered the call of leadership, and that they may be true and faithful disciples. Today we remember the great leader, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who came before us and proclaimed that without justice there can be no peace. Enable us O, God, to use all the gifts that you have given to us in service to you and others. Let your name be glorified, that your kingdom will be with us on earth as it is in heaven. We offer this prayer in Jesus' name. Amen.

Opening Hymn #325 AAH “Every Time I Feel the Spirit”

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Liturgist

Holy and gracious God, we confess that we sometimes allow ourselves to be led astray by the idols of the world. We depend on our possessions and have not placed our trust in your grace. We have carelessly consumed the gifts you offer and have failed to be faithful stewards of the earth’s resources. Forgive us, we pray. Lead us to true repentance that we may serve you faithfully. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord, we pray. Amen.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Hear the good news! Christ unmask the idols of our worlds and frees us from all that would oppress us. In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Hymn #442

“The Church’s One Foundation”

Affirmation of Faith (excerpt from A Brief Statement of Faith)

In life and in death we belong to God.

Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel whom alone we worship and serve.

We trust in God, whom Jesus called Abba, Father. In sovereign love God created the world good and made everyone equally in God’s image male and female, of every race and people, to live as one community. Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition, Jesus was crucified, suffered the depths of human pain, and giving his life for the sins of the world. God raised this Jesus from the dead, vindicating his sinless life, breaking the power of sin and evil, delivering us from death to life eternal.

We trust in God, the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life.

The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor, and binds us together with all believers in the one body of Christ, the Church.

In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit, we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God’s new heaven and new earth. “Come, Lord Jesus.”

With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, Amen.

The Prayer of Intercession

...And now, church, I invite you to join me in praying the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples saying,

Our Father, who art in heaven. Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. They will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.
